

Unhealthy, Inequitable and Unsustainable: The Imperative to Improve Environments in Latino Communities

Wednesday March 30, 2011
State Capitol Room 3191
10:30-12:00 P.M.

AGENDA

I. Welcoming Remarks

Chad Silva, Statewide Policy Analyst, Latino Coalition for a Healthy California (LCHC)

Assemblymember William Monning, California State Assembly

II. Panel Presentations

Moderator: Genoveva Islas-Hooker, Regional Program Coordinator, Central California Regional Obesity Program

Healthier Environments in Rural Latino Communities

Jonathan London, Ph.D., Director of the Center for Regional Change, UC Davis

Creating Healthier Urban Environments for Latinos

Carolina Guzman, Program Manager, Prevention Institute

Race, Place and Economics: Public Investment Strategies to Create Equity & Health in Latino Communities

Rubén Lizardo, Associate Director, PolicyLink

III. Audience Comments

IV. Closing Remarks

Chad Silva, Statewide Policy Analyst, Latino Coalition for a Healthy California (LCHC)